Among Ancient Rivers and Sacred Mountains

Explore the majestic Mavicure Hills as you journey along ancient rivers shaped by time, uncovering the essence of a culture that fiercely preserves its memory and traditions. An experience that brings together sacred landscapes, adventure, cultural identity, and ancestral wisdom still alive in these lands.

Choose Guainía!

Because here, nature reveals itself in its purest form: endless rivers, red-tinted waterways, untouched beaches, and mountains rising from the jungle. A journey to connect with ancestral cultures, unforgettable landscapes, and the living wisdom of a land that still protects its essence.

A territory that for centuries has safeguarded the secret of sacred mountains and ancient rivers flowing through one of the most biodiverse regions on Earth.

Day 1:

Origen – Inírida – Base Camp

Your journey begins with a warm welcome in Inírida, where we'll meet to start this adventure through the land of water. From there, we'll travel by land to the city's boardwalk and river port, the starting point of our fluvial journey.

We'll navigate the river for approximately two hours until reaching El Venado Base Camp, located directly in front of the majestic Mavicure Hills. Upon arrival, you'll enjoy a traditional regional lunch, followed by a walk to the El Venado community and its natural viewpoint, a privileged spot to watch the sunset over the river and mountains. The day concludes with a welcome bonfire—weather permitting—followed by dinner and a well-deserved rest in shared cabins with views of the Mavicure Hills.

Accommodation:

Shared cabins located at El Venado Base Camp

Meal:

Lunch and dinner

Included Activities:

- Ground transfer to the boardwalk and river port.
- River navigation to El Venado Base Camp.
- Guided walk to the El Venado community.
- Visit to the natural viewpoint for sunset observation.
- Welcome bonfire (weather permitting).

Day 2:

Raudales – Cerro de Mavicure

The day begins at 6:00 a.m. with breakfast at the base camp, followed by a scenic river journey along the Inírida River toward the powerful rapids of Samuro and Cualet, where we hike through striking rock formations and unique Orinoquía landscapes.

After lunch at camp, we set out for the trek and ascent of Cerro de Mavicure, one of Guainía's most iconic natural landmarks. From the summit, we witness an unforgettable sunset over the vast jungle, followed by an exciting nighttime descent.

The day ends with dinner and a meaningful cultural evening, featuring a talking circle with a local elder and a presentation of traditional dances.

Accommodation:

Shared cabins located at El Venado Base Camp

Meals:

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Included Activities:

- River journey along the Inírida River to the Samuro and Cualet rapids
- Hike through the Orinoquía rock formations
- Trek and ascent of Cerro de Mavicure
- Sunset observation from the summit
- Night descent
- Cultural night: talking circle with a local elder and traditional dance presentation

Day 3:

Cerro Mono y Pajarito San Joaquín

Accommodation:

Shared cabins at El Venado Base Camp, facing the Mavicure Hills

Meals:

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Included Activities:

- Trek across Cerro Mono and Cerro Pajarito
- Visit to the community of El Remanso
- Canoeing along Caño San Joaquín (red waters and white-sand beaches)
- Dolphin watching (pink and gray river dolphins)
- Traditional workshop: preparation of mañoco and casabe

The day begins at 6:00 a.m. with breakfast at base camp, followed by a unique trek across Cerro Mono and Cerro Pajarito toward the community of El Remanso, offering deep connection with the landscape and local culture.

After lunch at camp, we enjoy a canoe journey along Caño San Joaquín, paddling through red waters and white-sand beaches in search of pink and gray river dolphins.

In the afternoon, we participate in a traditional workshop on the preparation of mañoco and casabe, staple foods of the region's Indigenous communities.

The day ends with dinner at camp, closing another meaningful experience in Guainía.

Day 4:

Estrella Fluvial – Isla Yupinai

Accommodation:

Beachfront cabins on Yupinai Island (Atabapo River) — seasonal experience

Meals:

Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Included Activities:

- Visit to the community of La Ceiba
- Tour of the community beekeeping project
- Transfer to the department of Vichada
- Visit to the Estrella Fluvial de Occidente (confluence of the Guaviare, Atabapo, and Orinoco rivers)
- Bonfire night with stories and traditional legends

We begin the day with breakfast, followed by a visit to the community of La Ceiba, where we learn about an inspiring local beekeeping project that supports sustainable livelihoods.

We then travel to the department of Vichada to witness one of Colombia's most remarkable natural landmarks: the Estrella Fluvial de Occidente, the breathtaking confluence of the Guaviare, Atabapo, and Orinoco rivers.

After lunch, we settle into cozy beachfront cabins on Yupinai Island, a white-sand island in the middle of the Atabapo River—an exclusive, seasonal experience that offers a deep connection with nature.

The day ends with dinner and a special evening of stories, legends, and traditional tales shared around a bonfire beneath the vast Orinoquía sky.

Day 5:

Inírida – Origen

The final day begins with a relaxed breakfast and the river return to Inírida, a moment to reflect on the journey and say goodbye to a land shaped by water, jungle, and ancestral wisdom. Depending on flight schedules, we will visit a nearby Indigenous community, where you will have the opportunity to learn about their traditions and purchase handcrafted artisan pieces, taking home a meaningful and authentic souvenir from Guainía.

Meals:

Breakfast

Included Activities:

- Visit to an Indigenous community near Inírida (subject to flight schedule).
- Opportunity to purchase locally made handicrafts.
- Transfer to Inírida Airport.
- End of the expedition.

Afterwards, we will transfer to Inírida's airport for the return flight, marking the end of a deep, transformative expedition filled with landscapes, cultures, and memories that will stay with you long after the journey ends.
